Implementing Educational Language Policy in Arizona
Legal, Historical and Current Practices in SEI

Edited by M. Beatriz Arias and Christian Faltis
Published by Multilingual Matters

Table of Contents

Contributors
Foreword: From Restrictive SEI to Imaging Better
Terrence Wiley

Part 1: Language Policy in Arizona

1. Language Policy and Teacher Preparation: The Implications of a Restrictive Language Policy on Teacher Preparation
   M. Beatriz Arias

2. Research-based Reform in Arizona: Whose Evidence Counts for Applying the Casteñeda Test to Structured English Immersion Models?
   Christian Faltis and M. Beatriz Arias

3. SLA Research and Arizona’s Structured English Immersion Policies
   Michael H. Long and H.D. Adamson

Part 2: Implementing SEI in Arizona

   Mary Carol Combs

5. Teachers’ Sheltered English Immersion Views and Practices
   Wayne E. Wright and Koyin Sung

6. Review of ‘Research Summary and Bibliography for Structured English Immersion Programs’ of the Arizona English Language Learners Task Force
   Stephen Krashen, Jeff MacSwam and Killie Rolstad

Part 3: Arizona Teacher Preparation for SEI

7. ‘They’re Just Confused’: SEI as Policy into Practice
   Sarah Catherine K. Moore

8. Implementing Structured English Immersion in Teacher Preparation in Arizona
   Nancy J. Murri, Amy Markos and Alexandria Estrella-Silve

9. The Politics of Preservice Teachers
   Kate Olson