

or shows us, how hard work and a positive attitude can help even the most difficult situation.

That is, she hopes to walk again.

In fact, many people say that overcoming hardships makes you a stronger person.

– qualities – that will help her learn to walk again.

In other words, she continues to have a good attitude.

(deeply) changed everything in her life, Jayci rarely complains.

which are things that help to bring about a result: her family's support, and Project Walk.

or highlight, the importance of hard work.

This means that they stimulate her interest in continuing to work hard.

meaning that it's very difficult or even impossible to solve it.