

After his parents' divorce, Jason had to adapt to living at his mom's house during the week and staying at his dad's apartment on the weekends.

adapt

The doctor prescribed medicine for the patient and ordered her to rest.

prescribe

Many people believe that taking a multi-vitamin every day is beneficial to your health.

beneficial

Angela was a very competent diver.

competent

Even though he was a celebrity, he tried to keep his public and private lives distinct.

distinct

Because of our country's slow economy, many people have to strictly budget their money.

economic

To facilitate her getting to school on time in the morning, Keeley started using an alarm clock.

facilitate

Using the internet and software such as Skype, people can now interact globally without having to travel.

globally

Gloria experienced the inevitable challenges of growing older, but she still looked forward to her birthday celebration every year.

inevitable

The woman was interacting with her dogs at the park.

interactions