

Content Objective:

- Using the target words, students will create poems or rap songs about school equity.

Language Objectives:

- Students will listen for and discuss the use of target words as their classmates present their poems or rap songs.