Content Objective:

Students will practice using the example contexting strategy in order to match sentences containing target words.

Language Objective:

Students will identify functional language used to signal example context clues, such as the following: for example; the following; such as; like; when are some of the; are included in; are members of; are examples of; e.g.