

the way things had been done all along and didn't think paying students was fair.

and stop trying in the future.

and working hard without being told.

---

the way things had been done all along and didn't think paying students was fair.

and stop trying in the future.

and working hard without being told.

---

the way things had been done all along and didn't think paying students was fair.

and stop trying in the future.

and working hard without being told.

---

the way things had been done all along and didn't think paying students was fair.

and stop trying in the future.

and working hard without being told.

---

the way things had been done all along and didn't think paying students was fair.

and stop trying in the future.

and working hard without being told.