

Content Objective:

- Using the target words, students will engage in a debate about paying students to do well in school.

Language Objectives:

- During the debate, each group will present their position on the topic while the other students listen for the use of target words.